

Youth ETERNAL

More Than Learning, Experiencing New Life

Press Release

Contact: K. Jackson
Phone: (888) 239-3663
Email: kjackson@youtheternal.org

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
9 A.M. EDT, April 1, 2010

YOUTH ETERNAL RESCUES AT RISK TEENS IN THE COMMUNITY

James M. Harden, Director of Youth ETERNAL, chooses Savannah as the first city to launch nationwide mentoring program.

SAVANNAH, GA, APRIL 1, 2010: James Harden, Director of Youth ETERNAL, will be in Savannah on Sunday afternoon, April 18, 2010, from 3:00 p.m. until 5:00 p.m., at the Bull Street Public Library, to hold an information session. "I am glad to see a comprehensive program that not only addresses the youth, but also attends to the needs of the family unit." said L.K. Ruffin, Region Five, Transitional Planning Administrator, Department of Human Resources.

Youth ETERNAL, through collaboration with highly committed private and public organizations, agencies and businesses around the world, seeks to fulfill its vision by providing a variety of services at a central facility, that is easily accessible to teens of all cultures, especially those who are at risk of under-education, unemployment, criminal activity, sexual promiscuity, teen parenthood, home instability, and diminished life-skills (www.youtheternal.org).

###

If you'd like more information about Youth ETERNAL, or to schedule an interview with James Harden, please contact A. Valladares, Executive Secretary, at 1-888-239-3663 or via e-mail avalladares@youtheternal.org.

PO BOX 270195 LAS VEGAS, NV 89127
1.888.239.3663
www.youtheternal.org

